Keyboard Macro Tool supports you to create powerful macros, like you would with Microsoft Office's AutoHotkey! You can record your mouse clicks or keystrokes. KeyMacro will store those as "actions" and "reactions" to create custom actions and reactions to do things quickly and easily. Create powerful and useful workflows with KeyMacro. Keyboard Macro can record clicks on the cursor (or position the cursor to an area) as well as program actions with keyboard, mouse or any other input device. Reactions can include text or other actions. Use actions to create custom actions and use reactions to create custom reactions. Record macro actions to do repetitive things easily, such as downloading files, fixing typos, changing text, creating filters or program shortcuts, or opening files. Record macro reactions to do things like adding files, deleting files, running programs, opening folders, saving documents, etc. Use auto hotkeys to perform multiple tasks with a single click or run scripts to process and automate tasks. You can create keyboard macros that do things like formatting documents, opening files, installing programs, or moving, copying and pasting files. Record keystrokes as actions and mouse clicks and clicks as reactions. Record text as actions and mouse clicks and clicks as reactions. Record mouse clicks and keyboard keystrokes as actions and mouse clicks and mouse clicks as reactions. How to Start KeyMacro: 1. Go to Menu, choose the Menu item "KeyMacro" and Click "Record macro". 2. The "Record Macro" window will be opened. 3. Input the title of the action you want to record, then click "OK". 4. Input the first reaction you want to record, then click "OK". 5. Input the title of the reaction you want to record, then click "OK". 6. Continue to add actions or reactions to the macro and when you are done, click "OK". 7. Click "Run Macro" to execute the macro. 8. Click the "Play macro" button to play the recorded macro. 9. When the macro finishes recording, click "Stop" to stop the recording. 10. Click "Play" to play the recorded macro. 11. When you finish testing the recorded macro, click "Save" to save the macro. 12. Click "Exit" to close the program. Main Features: * Record mouse clicks, keyboard keystrokes, as well as program actions and reactions. * Id6a3396d6
