Resident Evil 7 Biohazard Resident Evil 7 Biohazard is a first-person horror survival game developed by Capcom for the PlayStation 4, Xbox One, and Microsoft Windows. It was released worldwide on January 24, 2017. It is the seventh main installment of the Resident Evil series, and the first main installment released on the PlayStation 4 and Microsoft Windows since Resident Evil 6 (2013). The player takes on the role of Ethan Winters, who must locate fellow officer Ada Wong and make their way to the Sheriffs' Department to escape, along with other survivors, from an abandoned and heavily fortified Umbrella Corporation laboratory. Contents Resident Evil 7 is the first main series game to be released on the Microsoft Windows operating system, and the first game since Resident Evil 6 (2013) to be developed by a different studio than the main series creator Capcom.[3] It was also developed by Capcom R&D2 as a new development team. This is the first game of the series to use the Unreal Engine 4, and the only game in the series to do so.[4] Compared to previous games in the series, Resident Evil 7 is focused on realism, immersion, and nonlinear gameplay. For instance, it features a first-person-perspective throughout, and players can explore the game world freely without enemies following them.[5][6] Resident Evil 7 has been revealed to feature the return of Leon S. Kennedy[7] and Chris Redfield from the Resident

Summary: A realm founded and maintained by the most terrifying defender of the faith of Islam, leader of the greatest invasion the world has ever seen, and the greatest necromancer this world has ever seen. The Haunted Highlands Our first stop on the adventure has a pre-established tie to the villainous necromancer and now faction, the Great Lady of all Haunted Highlands, the Viscount of Dread and Dreadlord. In order to get there and back for free, we enter the DM's chat room and tell the DM to remove the Viscount. Free ride to castle of skull & skeleton! In the room we find who seem to be two mirror images of our party members. And when the selfie looks at the party members, they look at her clones: "What's up, what you doing? You don't recognize us?" - "Uh, sorry, we don't open the door to strangers, but you seem a nice bunch. Anyways, your name is Rackus, if I recall. That's you on the right, next to the black canine." We call out "Hello, Rackus". All of a sudden, Rackus and our party all teleports to our room. "And where have you guys been hiding for the past a thousand years?" - he says grimly. We sort of freeze in the room for a moment, as we took it all in. "I'm quite surprised you don't recognize us, Rackus. We've been looked over, and we're here to warn you of a certain danger." - said the clone, as if he too had seen the teleported party. "I'm Theodorus. This is Rackus and Thrascius." - he says and gives slight bows. We have a lot of time to plan our moves, as does he. He goes on to tell us he got into the castle as a spy, but got interested in the necromancer's plots, and got betrayed to her. She tormented him with her dark arts and tortured him to the point of breaking. After that, he turned into a pillar of cacti and started his Cactothuobs. "After that, I started to work on how to get revenge. And I managed to find a method to turn the necromancer into a pillar of cacti, like me. Now, when he remembers me he falls ill. We don't know
