Konvertor FM

Konvertor FM is a free and easy-to-use application that will help you to turn documents, videos, images, audio or any other multimedia data into a different format, all in one step. Like most of the free file converters, Konvertor FM is simple, easy to use and fast, but also it supports batch processing and conversion of unlimited file items at the same time. Konvertor FM can convert batches of images, videos or documents to a wide range of formats. Convert and burn audio DVD and data discs as well as burn audio CDs from almost any application that supports writing to discs. You can burn from any Windows application that accepts files as input, such as Microsoft Word, Excel, Access, Adobe Reader, and more. The program saves you the time and hassle of manually formatting discs by giving you an organized interface, various options and presets, and support for all major writing drives. How it works: Click the Convert button to select an input file, and specify the path for disc writing. The CD or DVD burning wizard will open and guide you through the process of disc creation. You can choose a read-only disc, a write-once disc or a multi-session disc by checking the "write once" or "multi-session" box on the wizard's General Options tab. You can also set automatic ejection for your discs if you plan to hand them out. Powerful wizards enable you to create audio discs or create data discs. The audio wizard has options for high-quality voice recording, the ability to save presets for recording, and automatic gain control (AGC). The data wizard has various options for the kind of data you want to write, including standard tracks, and data speeds of 16/48/192 kbps, and sample rates of up to 48 kHz. Input file formats supported include MP3, OGG, AIFF, AAC, FLAC, WAV, WMA, APE, WAV, and MP3. Download Namshi Windows Data Recovery software Press Release: Namshi Windows Data Recovery software is an all-in-one tool that can repair, recover, fix, and convert any data from any Windows computer, including Windows XP, Windows 7, Windows 8, and Windows 10. A defendant is entitled to summary judgment if no evidence has been presented that would allow a rational jury to return a verdict for the nonmoving party. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248, 106 S.Ct. 2505, 91 L.Ed.2d 202 (1986). Evidence and inferences are viewed in a light most favorable to the non-moving party. See Spivey v. Robertson, 197 F.3d 772, 774-75 (5th Cir.1999). III. Analysis This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332. "The removing party bears the burden of establishing federal jurisdiction by a preponderance of the evidence." Marcus v. AT&T Corp., 382 F.3d 615, 619 (5th Cir.2004). The Complaint alleges breach of contract and breaches of the duty of good faith and fair dealing. (D.E. No. 1.) However, in their Notice of Removal, Defendants argue that the only proper defendant under this action is the United States. (D.E. No. 1, ¶ 4.) The Court agrees, as this is an action against the government pursuant to the Federal Tort Claims Act, and the United States has not waived its sovereign immunity and consented to suit. 28 U.S.C. § 2674; see also Hunsley v. Martinez, 589 F.3d 247, 254-55 (5th Cir.2009). Therefore, the Court grants Defendants' Motion to Dismiss as to Judge Ellis, the United States, and Judge Carney. The Complaint alleges that Defendants owed Plaintiffs their professional duties of care, loyalty, and good faith. (D.E. No. 1, ¶ 4.) Defendants argue that "since the United States has sovereign immunity from being sued by private individuals
