Before getting the violonist lost up his ass in the bear, before stumbling into a swamp filled with evil trolls. Adam was dreaming in the womb of a nautilus. A child with 3 faces, a daughter with 3 heads, a son with 3 eyes, a friend with 3 hearts, a robot with 3 swords. And he laughed at the world, and cried when he got angry. Finally he understood his existence, and he felt himself slipping away. Three friends who have paid the price for the important things in life have decided to leave a message for the future. Three gigantic larvae sent towards the end of the world will find the evil carrion eaten by the horde, but only once the world has ended. Can they teach it something? Who is right? Who is left? He is a burglar who broke into the kingdom of the rich, just to have the right to fill his pocket with the gold and jewels of the world. He is a man who finds himself alone in the end of the world, but not for long. He is the third one to break through the invisible wall of the world, the breaker. The man who was left without a soul. He is a wizard who filled the universe with evil and sadness, just to feel himself. He is the third one who will appear in the shadow of the world, the one in the mirror who lost his mask. He is the lonely man who is looking for his friends, the one in the castle who wishes that the world ends one day. Both are vagabonds and pimps, both are angels and demons. Adam is a friend with 3 faces, a friend who carries death in his heart, a friend who will fail in every attempt to escape. And today he will destroy the world. A person who is tired of being human. ----- Music : 1) "Hibernation (Again)" by Dead Arrogant [John Bayston/Unrelated] Hibernation (Again) "Candy." 2) "192 Hours" by The Day Off [John Bayston/Unrelated] 192 Hours "Midnight (Part 1)" by The Day Off [John Bayston/Unrelated] 3) "First Flight" by A Silver String Quartet [John Bayston/Unrelated] 4) "Gone With the Night" by John Bayston [Unrelated] 5) "Can't Recall My Face" by

The power of the Heart is such that it can know all the ways that it can be hurt. Against Heart of the Woods, no matter how hard they try to protect themselves, these weapons are impassible. Piercing the Heart is a killing method that is used primarily by Heart of the Woods itself. Using the Heart, Heart of the Woods can find the Heart of the person who is about to be pierced by the blade of the Heart and transfer their own heart into him or her. It can also be used to put the Heart of a person somewhere else, making the person confused and completely unable to remember what he or she was doing. It can also be used to put the person's Heart in a form of death: the person loses all of his or her memories and can no longer even think of what he or she was doing in the past, thus, if put in such a state, the person will remain in such a state forever. Topple Heart of the Woods is a technique which Heart of the Woods can use to make use of the Heart on someone else's Heart. Basically, the Heart has to be put in contact with the person's heart or something that resembles his or her heart. Then, it will turn into the impassable heart and kill the person. From what I read, the Heart of the Woods can also kill someone if someone cuts the Heart. ReviewsHeart of the Woods is one of the best visual novels, Yuri or otherwise, I have ever had the pleasure of playing.9/10 Okazu YuriHeart of the Woods is the quintessential modern day fairy tale. What's new:

Story is a Japanese manga series by Koichi Kusuhara. Onsen Master Story also known as Onsen Master Story: The Secrets of the Hot Springs, Onsen Master Story: The Secret of the Treasure (), Onsen Master Story: The Mysterious Incident () was serialized in Bessatsu Shōnen Magazine from 2002 to 2003. It's about the events that happened in Kansai before World War Two, the series cover the adventures of the "Onsen" (hot springs) along with famous legend of Maeda Toshiie and the Sengen-Kaiso-no-shūri-ji, it's also a of Konjiki no Yatsura. Plot It's a story that has been told to Hamura from almost his whole life by his mother. She told him that while they were listening to a tangyoyaki festival in Kansai, a rustle was heard on the floor, but this time she'll not tell. So she walked away and a voice said that: And the voice continued: A portrait of Toshiie Maeda fell on the floor. Hamura (and his father) started a fight over the picture, because Maeda was a legend of kaiso and he wanted to keep it. For years Hamura wanted to get the picture, but in that place, the rumour were sealed and the most precious items of this temple was being kept safe. Hamura wished that the future would deliver a way to get the picture back. When Hamura was 13 years old, he invited many visitors for a camping. Among those was Maeda Toshiie. Toshiie was kind to him, as he played with the young boy, with the help of others, they were able to repair a motorbike; it was damaged during the events that happened in Kansai. After repairing the motorbike, Hamura thought that he would pass the test of Maeda when he was a 15 and he invited him for camping. But with the help of some people who arrested Toshiie and some soldiers who searched the wooden box which he carried, Toshiie was able to escape; they burned the box, but when the fire started to fade, Maeda found a hidden pot of gold and the "Sengen-Kaiso-no-shuiriji" amulet which Toshiie found when he was a child. When he got away from everyone and wanted to bury the Improvable soccer is an easy game in which you can play online or locally with your friends (via Drop In). Keep score in a friendly or competitive manner using a simple set of rules. For each goal you score, your team earns one of four points, down from five. Your goal is to get the most points at the end of the match by keeping the ball alive, then scoring and keeping it there. Hitting the ball into the net is simple and will get you the points, but the rules state that you can only take one shot at the ball. So at the end of each match, the team with the most points wins. At the beginning of every match, you decide whether you want to play friendly or challenging. For friendly matches, you can still score a goal if you pass the ball into the net by the end of a natural time limit. But if you miss, you will lose the match. For challenging matches, you have to score a goal within that time limit. In every match, you need to do either one of the following: lead your team to five consecutive touches on the ball (aka control it), pass it to a teammate (even to yourself), or carry it for a certain distance using a single continuous motion. If you can pass the ball to your teammate or carry it that far, that will lead to the end of the game and you will win.

INTRODUCTION ===== There are several different categories of treatment options for the management of fractured implants.^[@B1]^ Particulated implants are available in commercially pure titanium and cobalt-chromium. The success of treatment depends on the type and location of fracture and can range from nonoperative to revision surgery.^[@B2]^ Prosthetic revision is a common procedure for failed implants. The goal of the procedure is to restore and maintain oral function for long-term stability and esthetics. In most cases, a multidisciplinary approach is required for the successful outcome of such procedures. Implant abutments or direct restorations are usually selected as treatment options for implant-supported crowns. The purpose of this article is to describe a technique for direct restoration of the failed mandibular implant-supported crown with metal-ceramic.

DESCRIPTION OF THE TECHNIQUE
===== A 68-year-old female presented with an implant-supported crown fractured at the implant/abutment interface in the central incisor region of
