can be used to produce web
applications that look like the popular Chrome

---

web browser. This is made possible through the use of browser specific JavaScript APIs that are only available in Chrome. Chromium can be used in conjunction with Adobe Flex applications to add the appropriate browser specific behaviors to your Flex application. In this tutorial, we

---

explore how to access the Chrome APIs through Chromium and why
they can be beneficial when building Flex applications. For
