The Russian Defense Ministry has observed and analyzed an upcoming military parade in Pyongyang, North Korea, the ministry's press office told TASS on Monday. "The Russian Defense Ministry has observed and analyzed the upcoming military parade in Pyongyang, North Korea. Besides regular Russian troops, the North Korean soldiers involved in the parade are expected to include members of the Korean People's Army (KPA) artillery and missile units. "During the parade the Russian Defense Ministry will be represented by its representatives in a ceremonial battalion of the 3rd Guards Army, which is currently on duty in the Amur region. The Russian Defense Ministry will be presenting an actual exhibition of the army's capabilities. Besides, our servicemen will display intercontinental ballistic missiles [ICBM] systems, strategic aviation of the Aerospace Force, such as aircraft-carrying airplanes, and tanks, as well as the army's latest-generation chassis-borne armored systems," the press office said. "Moreover, the Russian Defense Ministry will be presenting the creation of a third in-service P-800 Onyx Intercontinental Ballistic Missile system," the press office said. April 3, 2017 Minutes The minutes of the April 2, 2017 meeting were approved, and the next meeting will be on Thursday, April 5, 2017.

April 3, 2017 Welcome Welcome to our SharePoint conference, APRIL 3, 2017. We at PASS are happy to welcome you as our guest and as the first of many sessions that we will be presenting at this conference. If you're joining us for the first time, we appreciate the opportunity to meet you and welcome you to the community. As most of you know, we just completed our annual developer survey, and there were some great takeaways from the survey. Most importantly, we know that we have a strong list of sponsors that is growing every year. This year, we decided to extend the sponsorship past the conference itself, to help support our sponsors to grow their businesses and invest in technology. That said, all of our sponsors are sponsoring not only the conference but the entire community. Well, it's time to get started. Our speakers have gone through their agenda and are ready to present. Greetings, PSSession attendees! We are glad you are joining us and that you will be able to attend the sessions we have for you this year. There are many things going on throughout the conference for you to participate in or be a part of. Here is a round-up of some of the information you will need to get ready for this year's
