ROTii is an innovative puzzle game in which you use the interconnecting power of sound and rhythm to explore a sprawling apocalyptic megacity, collecting and "cleaning" a variety of items from its germ-laden locations. After 9 hours of play, you'll be ready for retirement! A mystery unfolds through the series of puzzling missions you solve along the way. How do you start cleaning a town that's been overrun by machines? Do you use robots to do the dirty work and clean up the street so that you might start exploring elsewhere? Or do you do it the old fashioned way? Do you attack the dastardly robots and clean up the streets alone? And what of your life after ROTii? Do you swear off urban exploration forever? Or just live out that retirement dream? KEY FEATURES: - Hundreds of music tracks, including 16 unique bonus tracks which contain hidden messages and unlock bonus content! - Soundtrack features previously exclusive guest appearances by UK comedy stars Johnny Vegas, Doon Mackichan, Joe Lycett and X Factor's Amelia Lily. - Impossible "No Touch" puzzle gameplay that lets you discover the city without interrupting your cleaning progress. - Over 200+ quests with challenging puzzles and bonus content. - Dynamic HD graphics and, for the first time on iOS, full 2D touch controls. - Insanely cute robot designs that you can customize to your heart's content. - Use the in-game video editor to create your own music videos. - Unlock secret modes on the world map for unlimited replayability. - Dozens of collectables and locations to discover! - Interactive level designs mean you can trace the routes of all the collectables for maximum possible rewards. - Follow the story through more than 15 art books which unlock as you collect and build up your ROTii. - Customize your own robot and write your own music! - Play solo or connect with a friend via Bluetooth and share the fun! - Activate bonus missions on each world map and find special easter eggs! - Fight against zombie robots, gumball machines, bees, toilets, classic video game characters and more. Search for objects and track them on a large map! The game is for one player, but up to four can play together. Together, you will solve puzzles and find the objects in a wide variety of locations. Highlights: - Environmental puzzles in city parks, city streets and even in the neighbourhood of an enemy robot - More than 50 puzzles per game - All songs are on an upbeat and quirky soundtrack - Track your discoveries through a large map with numerous clues - Explore four different themes - Four new songs and eight already existing songs included - Switching songs can be used to spice up the soundtrack - All locations can be visited multiple times - Multiple solutions and game modes for endless hours of fun - Drag & Drop gameplay - Player friendly voiceovers and high quality audio - Different levels with different elements: temperatures, prepositions, time, number of lives and the number of points to find! - Save by syncing it with Google Play - Play on-line with Android devices! - Data-saving mode - Save game upload for Google Play - New song that is shown at the end of every game Note: This app or theme requires WebView to provide a secure full screen/widget experience.Q: uitableview and parsing a dictionary - crash Totally new to development and want to try and build an app where i have a tableview that is displaying data from a dictionary. i have the following code: - (NSInteger)numberOfSectionsInTableView:(UITableView *)tableView { return 1; } - (NSInteger)tableView:(UITableView *)tableView numberOfRowsInSection:(NSInteger)section { NSMutableArray *dictionary = [[NSMutableArray alloc] init]; return [dictionary count]; } - (UITableViewCell *)tableView:(UITableView *)tableView cellForRowAtIndexPath:(NSIndexPath *)indexPath { static NSString *CellIdentifier = @"Cell"; UITableViewCell *cell = [tableView dequeueReusableCellWithIdentifier:CellIdentifier]; if (cell == nil) { cell = [[[UITableViewCell alloc]

have taken out the prize for the highest quality album art of 2010, im sorry but i dont know who might show them the awards and no i will not be contacting them, but i have included a link for your downloading pleasure, im just sick of the whole thing even if i was standing on the winning podium... Rotii: Love is a Solar Noise Cult of Luna: Dream (Skream Remix)!!! 26 Jan 2010 Posted by: Helati The added sound is a touch sharper but it all sound the same to me, still would like to have the first version of their album as the original, thinking about all the loss that has beenfallen on this project, it is a shame really and i look forward to the delivery of their album. Rotii: Love is a Solar Noise 29 Jan 2010 Posted by: Shua totally agree but it's not as good as the first one in my eyes. The intro sounds almost scratched which turns into good chills every time I listen to it. It was good that they haven't updated it and stopped. Rotii: Love is a Solar Noise 01 Feb 2010 Posted by: Max Agree with the review on Shua! . TFS. Rotii: Love is a Solar Noise 08 Feb 2010 Posted by: Jamil Abdullah Very familiar with my ears - vocals are so spacey and layers of music and sounds of awesome tend to come to your mind when hearing Rotii! I was getting worried with the whole " keep in touch with fans and such thing" but by golly I was wrong! This album is sound of age and great music, not just an artist and his tribe connected! I like this excellent group and their last album "Vain" and I have to say it sounds the best of all than "Crys for a Land". "LRCK" was a very good track and the last one after this great success. This song has many effects and the middle just kills the beginning. Then we have continue with the real track and hit full rhythm. The guitar sounds and organs are my favorite and the duet by Anfen sounds very good on this album. I love this project and I wish I would have wakedup and heard about any problems or anything to do with Rotii. I like the music on "
