Singled Out is a game where you play as single bits, and your only objective is to deliver the info from one point to the other. If you want to pass all levels in Singled Out, you have to adopt a smart behaviour. Don't take more than one route and don't waste your energy on unnecessary things! But be careful, some enemies can absorb energy out of you, and you may need to draw energy from your allies before you make a move! Features: - Level-and-art design with a bunch of different particles - Epic level-and-art design with a bunch of particles - Unique gameplay mechanic, that will blow your mind if you try it - Special soundtrack, that will be stuck in your head for weeks - Leaderboard system - Different skins for the bit (main hero)And many, many more in the Solous the Game! For copyright matters, please contact me: s.george@gmail.com Thanks for watching:) Video Rating: 3 / 5 So after shipping the my last game as a complete new design, I decided to make an update. I'll try to go for a higher standard in all fronts! So I will add many more levels, more gameplay features, better artwork and a dedicated music composition! I'm also planning to add a single-player mode for the game, so I can try and perfect the gameplay mechanic as well! And finally, there will be a soundtrack dedicated to the game, not only providing vocals, but also a synth/orchestra version. I'm really proud of the new look, because I tried to make the levels feel more epic and more atmospheric, and I'm sure you will love it too:) The development of the game is ongoing and I will try my best to update as fast as I can! To YOUR Higher Flying Kitty!. Welcome to My Blog!. It's our privilege to be able to connect people to their own Spirit & Soul - And thus unite the whole world to happy, harmonious and highly evolved state! I am all by myself, and in a survival of the fittest type of environment. I also have the KRAUTS & FRENCH to stay out of harms way with "THE BEST IS YET TO COME" I know, it's not a cute saying. Why am I telling all this to you? Because YOU are the ones going to be the "Best", by living your lives with love, joy and all. Living your life to its fullest. Giving of yourself & the gift of your time, energy and MONEY to a worthy cause, and helping them get what they need. And most importantly, to make LIFE MONEY for you! If you decide to take part of that money and do right in the world, by giving away as much as possible of it, it's an easy and fulfilling decision to make. You just spend the rest of your money buying your food (and ice cream), drinks, movies or whatever you spend your money on. There are no sick people that are suffering and starving. Every famine, every other kind of war, etc. IS because some people have zero or no food, instead of caring about the good of the people. And so with this environment of having no money or that's it for anything else, we give people a chance to get a chance at life, a chance to do right and be good, make love and forgive, to do what the Creator intended, instead of doing like they see other people do... because they are rich. I know this is sad to be living in today's world, but in this feeling of total helplessness you can still see the good out there, the people helping other people. You have to see the good light that's probably always been there. We are so used to the bad, that we forget the good can happen as well. PEOPLE HAVE SCARCELY ANYTHING. I know this sounds very crude, but we need each other to survive. We need you to survive. All life, you can see, has the same desire for survival. Living a life where we are eating, drinking and
