I had great results with your ebook. So I will contact you if I have any questions.Q: how can i define a dictionary for a C program in bash? I have been trying to define a dictionary which stores the strings of the words and then convert them to numbers by using the dictionary. I think it's a good way to store dictionaries, but it did not work. here is the code. #define dictionary { a : 1 z : 9 d : 3 e : 4 } #include #include #include char *ToUpper(char *); int print_dictionary(char *); int incr(int n); int main(){ int i = 0; int j = 0; char *p="hello word please"; p=ToUpper(p); printf("%s ",p); while(i < 6d1f23a050
