The...Q: Scala warning: not to be confused with function result

I'm getting the following message on compile time and while it's quite descriptive, I don't quite understand why it's there:

[warn] def foo(): T =
getX() [warn] ^ [warn] not to be confused with function result [warn] ^ [warn] def foo(): T = getX A: The warning message is telling you that def foo(): T =
