Alright here's the problem. I got Hitman: Contracts v1.74 Auto trainer for free and at the same time another trainer offers v1.75. However, I have v1.74 of his trainer and he offers v1.75 of his trainer and up. This is really bad and hard to pull off and honestly I don't want to start a brick and mortar store so I'm all about extra ways of earning money. Is there a way to crack/hack or any programs that can fix this and just free my trainer or v1.74? Thanks in advance and I know this thread has been answered before but that's why I'm re-posting this, hopefully to get some insight. Okay, so where can I download the v1.75 trainer of his trainer, and v1.75 with modifications and adware too? Also, I don't see there being any known bugs for this problem, is there? If so I can honestly see this being a pain for you, but I'm just trying to make it easier for you and a little more like a legit situation, so please just give me a quick answer. I'm not going to bite, I promise. Alright here's the problem. I got Hitman: Contracts v1.74 Auto trainer for free and at the same time another trainer offers v1.75. All programs you need to make the game trainer will work. There is only that one problem, the other trainer is trying to fool you but you know that it doesn't work. He tries to add his own trainer into the game. This is something he's been doing forever (and calling Hack) but there is no way to release this. (if you follow his steps). Take this v1.74 auto trainer and replace it. Download the "Unlock Tool
