Download the 5 sai surahs of Quran Majeed which begin with the word 'kaafi'.I've been testing out the new Maple Interior Upgrade on my 2010 Subaru Forester and I have to say it works very well. It has good quality materials, and a very reasonable price for such a great interior. Before I got the upgrade I was trying to figure out how to fix the problems I had with the dashboard. The velcro that was holding my stuff to the dashboard was flaking off making it hard to hold on to anything I needed. After the upgrade I was able to snap my material bags back in place with ease. I had a similar problem before.

I had a few things on the dash and wanted a little more storage space. The velcro was on the back of the dash which was hard to get to. The system worked great for me and looks much better now. We asked folks who work at the store about their opinions on the Maple Interior. Here are their responses: "I'd buy the Maple Interior for my SUV next time!" "There was no other way to get this kind of quality for the reasonable price." "They look great. They are of high quality.

This is my first time using the upgrade. I was impressed by the material, quality and the quick delivery." The price on the original purchase plus installation was $118.00 Approximate Price: The estimated cost of adding this feature to your 2010 Subaru Forester is: $23.50. Install Time: This Installed in about 2 hours Duration of Plan: This plan will last for 6 months Primary USA Shipping for Recipient:*
