Top 10 Proven Ways To Get Rid Of A Spider In Your House Top 10 Proven Ways To Get Rid Of A Spider In Your House By Rachel DeWitt Contrary to what movie and TV characters would have you believe, spiders aren't just on the big screen, they're in your house. While there are no more reasons to jump out of your seat when you spot one, there are a few ways to get them out without a difficult fight, including spider repellents and a few natural methods.

Spider Repellents 1. Put Spider Repellent in the Air Spider repellents can be found in many common locations and work by either making you or the spider uncomfortable, so either way, you don't want to be around them. Many people disagree with these types of repellents, but they are effective for the right reason. Keep away from them by avoiding the area for a few weeks and they'll be gone. 2. Put Spider Repellent in the Car Driving down the road with spider repellent inside could be the difference between a life and death situation. This particular method isn't always appreciated, but it works wonders. Drive down the road for a few weeks and they'll be gone. 3. Try Repellent Drops This method consists of spray repellents that are watered down enough to be sprayed. Make sure to reapply this with the sprayer a few times a day to keep the spider repellent active. If it's a larger spider, you'll want to spray this more than once a day. 4. Try A Lawn That Is Spiked If you have a large lawn that is a constant spider's hangout, this is a great way to get rid of them in the long-run. If you've tried all other methods and it's still there, this may be your only option. Spider Repellents are very effective and c6a93da74d
